Gov. Will Sign Teacher Bill Reluctantly

By LEON HATCH
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today that despite his personal opposition he might sign a pending bill to revise the Teacher Retirement System if the legislature approves the measure.

But the governor wouldn't commit himself definitely on the bill which was submitted in both houses Tuesday.

Another bill favored by the governor and some of his legislative followers is being prepared and will be introduced soon.

The present bill is that generally favored by the school forces. It calls for higher state contributions than those which would be required customarily under the Faubus-backed plan.

On another matter Faubus said he probably would sign a bill which has passed both houses to repeal the school directors recall law.

And he said he thought the so-called free electors law helped the Democratic party cause to victory last fall. He said surveys made under his direction showed many Arkansans who voted for the unpledged Democratic electors would not have voted for President Kennedy because of religious feeling or other factors.

But the governor said he had not made up his mind what action he would take if the legislature approves a pending proposal to repeal the law and have names of presidential and vice presidential candidates appear on the ticket.

A reporter asked the governor why he had tentatively decided to approve repeal of the recall law, which was adopted in the 1958 special session and he replied: "Primarily because the legislature passed it."

Faubus said he had no strong feelings on the repeal. If he were strongly against it he would veto it, the governor said.

During the discussion Faubus said the recall law was not originally his idea but that he had supported it in 1958.

The law was designed to provide for removal of school board members expected of integrationist tendencies but has not worked that way in practice.

A dozen or more recall elections have been held but only two involved a racial matter and in these cases directors who were opposed by extreme segregationists were retained.

Weaver Approved by Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Banking Committee on an 11-4 vote today approved Robert C. Weaver, New York Negro, to be the government's housing administrator.

The committee acted within minutes after closing public hearings on President Kennedy's choice of the 53-year-old Weaver for the highest job a Negro has ever held in the government.

The committee action sends the nomination on to the Senate where it could encounter some debate and opposition. But eventual Senate approval seems certain.

Snow Brings Trouble in N. Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Up to a foot of snow covered northwest Arkansas today. Schools closed and all travel was disrupted. One death was blamed on slippery roads.

The worst snowstorm of the winter so far in Arkansas dumped 12 inches of snow on Springfield, Berryville and Eureka Springs. In places, the fall was estimated at 14 inches.

Nearly all the northwest section of the state lay under four or more inches of snow. The storm belt spread eastward along the northern border of the state, with more than four inches of snow reported at Mammoth Springs, on the state line in north central Arkansas.

State Police said no highways were closed, but labeled Highway 71 between Fort Smith and Fayetteville "nearly impassable."

All highways in northwest Arkansas were hazardous.

A Missouri woman was killed Tuesday near Paris in a collision blamed on icy roads.

Bus and air service in the area was disrupted. Power companies and telephone exchanges reported scattered service interruptions, but no serious difficulties.

Nearly all schools were closed in Washington, Benton, Madison, Newton, Marion, Boone and Carroll counties. Some Independence County schools also closed. Most did not hold classes Tuesday and cancelled school again today.

The Harrison area reported about 11 inches of snow on the ground and all roads in that area were described as dangerous.

Fayetteville had more than eight inches of snow, Marshall and Mountain Home over seven inches and Greenforest more than six inches. Fort Smith had about three inches of snow was reported at Newport, Batesville, Dardanelle, Evening Shade, Calico

Accident Is Fatal to One, Three Hurt

PARIS, Ark. (AP)—A Missouri woman was killed and three persons injured in a two-car accident about 18 miles east of here Tuesday.

Mrs. Dorothy Baby Gilkey, 37, of Fisk, Mo., was killed after being thrown from a car driven by her 45-year-old husband, Walter F. Gilkey.

State Trooper Joe Brewer said the Gilkey vehicle skidded on icy state Highway 22 and struck a car driven by Col. Ernest L. McDaniel, 43, of Camp Robinson near North Little Rock.

Gilkey and McDaniel were injured, as was a passenger in McDaniel's car, 59-year-old Col. Robert J. O'Donnell of North Little Rock.

McDaniel is operations and training officer for the Arkansas National Guard. O'Donnell is head of the Army's advisory group for the Arkansas Guard.

The injured were hospitalized here and McDaniel and Gilkey later were transferred to a Little Rock Veterans' Administration hospital.

Child Burned to Death at Hospital

BOONEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A 26-month-old girl was fatally burned Tuesday at the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium here.

Martha Maxine Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Henderson of Booneville, was dead on arrival at a Little Rock hospital. She was found in a bathroom, badly scalded from hot water.

It was not determined how she was scalded. The girl was in the Sanatorium for treatment and observation.

JFK Pledges to Use Position in Desegregation

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy pledged today that he will use the "moral authority or position of influence of the presidency" in school desegregation situations.

The President at his news conference said students should be permitted to attend schools in accordance with court decisions.

The statements were made in response to a request for comment on a boycott by white students of schools in New Orleans, ordered desegregated three months ago by a federal court.

A reporter said there appears to be an organized campaign of intimidation which has kept most white children out of these schools.

Kennedy replied that he will speak out about the New Orleans situation "at such time as I think it is most useful and effective."

He said he will attempt to use the "moral authority or position of influence of the presidency in New Orleans and in other places."

Pressed for a more specific statement, Kennedy said: "As far as New Orleans goes it is my position that all students should be given the opportunity to attend public schools regardless of their race, and that is in accordance with the Constitution."

Kennedy said it is his opinion that the people of the country believe as he does about this matter.

Kennedy said he feels efforts to provide "a more harmonious acquiescence with the court decision" in New Orleans should wait until the administration has concluded an analysis of the situation there.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today he hopes the United States is "completely secure" in its space age defenses against Communist power—but at the moment he lacks a "clear answer" to whether there is a missile gap.

At a news conference the President backed away from the strongly critical position he had taken during the political campaigns last fall. He charged then that under Republican leadership the nation was falling behind in the missile race.

The fact is, he said, that studies he ordered in the Pentagon on the missile gap problem have not been completed and will not be for a few days. When they are finished—perhaps by Feb. 20 on some matters—he will recommend to Congress any changes needed in budget provisions for weapons programs.

In discussing the over-all American-Soviet power relationship the President said: "The United States will not strike first."

He thus by implication ruled out any policy of what has been called preventive or pre-emptive war. He said the realization that the United States will not strike first is one of the important considerations in estimating the balance of missile forces.

By BARRY SCHWEID
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy faces news conference questioning today on his denial of reports that the Pentagon believes the United States and the Soviet Union are at equal missile strength.

Local Resident Shoots Himself Accidentally

A local man, Tom Conley, 33, accidentally shot himself about 9 a.m. today and is in critical condition in a local hospital. The incident occurred at the home of his father-in-law, Frank O'Rourke, in the Guernsey area near Hope.

According to Sheriff Jimmie Griffin, Conley was putting a single barreled shotgun into his car and it accidentally discharged. The blast hit him in the chest at an angle and most of the pellets went through his body and came out his side, the Sheriff said. Besides the gunshot wound he is suffering from extreme shock.

He was brought to a local hospital by a Herndon-Cornelius ambulance.

Mr. Conley, the father of four children, is a line crew foreman for Western Union and has worked for the telegraph firm for 15 years.

No Opposition to Billboards

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Legislation banning billboard advertising on interstate highways will not draw opposition from the state Highway Department if the department does not have to enforce the ban, Highway Director F. R. Oliver said Tuesday.

The Arkansas Legislature is currently faced with two such measures which make enforcement of the job of the Highway Department.

Mrs. Clarence C. Cannon of Forrest City, president of the Arkansas Federation of Women's Clubs, led a delegation that met with Oliver Tuesday to urge the department to withdraw its announced opposition to the bills.

Student Here Finalist for Scholarship

The Merit Scholars, to be announced April 27, will be selected from the finalist group. They will receive scholarships from the resources of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and from sponsoring businesses, foundations, associations and individuals. In 1959-60, 115 sponsors participated in the merit program.

Hospital to Get Priority on Buildings

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today that the State Hospital will get top priority in any building program financed out of current revenue.

"The $10 million we have for construction will be spread pretty thin," Faubus said. "If we're reduced to dividing insufficient funds, the needs of the State Hospital must be considered first."

Faubus declined to comment on withdrawal Monday of a soft drink tax bill designed to finance a $52 million construction program at the University of Arkansas, seven state colleges, the State Hospital and the Children's Colony at Conway.

"I am convinced that a genuine building need exists at all these institutions," Faubus said, "but I won't predict whether the money will be provided now that the soft drink tax measure has failed."

Faubus, discussing the subject at a news conference, said he would need more information before he could make a decision on alternatives to the tax measure. Garland County Rep. Ray S. Smith has introduced a bill to finance a $52 million construction bond issue from general revenue.

Turning to the problem of reorganizing the State Teachers Retirement System, Faubus said the discussion now is centering on a proposal for the state to match a five per cent salary contribution from teachers.

The most recent open proposal advanced before a joint legislative committee studying the matter, was for the state to contribute 9.72 per cent, with the teachers' share remaining at 5 per cent.

All discussion of reorganizing the retirement program has been pinned on the addition of Social Security, which would call for a three per cent contribution from teachers and a matching three per cent from local school districts.

Faubus indirectly criticized legislative efforts to divert highway revenues from the state highway fund by saying "Everyone knows this is a bad time to divert state highway funds because so much federal matching money is available."

A bill to give cities a larger share of road money failed in the House Monday. Pending in the Senate is a measure to give cities an additional $1.5 million from state funds for farm-to-market roads.

$449,229 Won by a Rail Worker

LONDON (AP)—A $22.40-a-week railroad worker, afraid to tell his wife and son he had gambled, won $449,229 for a farthing (a quarter of a cent) bet in the weekly soccer pool today.

When officials of the betting establishment found the railroad man he was hiding at his home, trying to find a way to explain his good fortune to his devoutly religious family.

Jefferson Sues for an Extra Post

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Pine Bluff businessman, James O. Stevens, has filed a suit in the Arkansas Supreme Court seeking the compel the State Board of Apportionment to increase Jefferson County's future representation in the Arkansas House from three to four members.

Stevens, an unsuccessful candidate for representative last year, brought the action against the board Monday. He cited Jefferson's population increase of 5,293 since 1950.

The suit charged that if the board had followed a method approved by the Supreme Court in 1941 the county would have gained a House seat.

Stevens said he expected other counties to join in the litigation. The Board of Apportionment, composed of the governor, the attorney general and secretary of state, is charged under the state constitution with reshuffling the House representation after each federal census.

Last week the board made only two changes in the House as a result of the population shifts from 1950 to 1960. It reduced Mississippi County's representation from four to three and increased Miller County's from one to two. Miller gained the seat which Mississippi lost.

Each of the state's 75 counties is entitled to one representative with the "extra" 25 seats of the House membership of 100 being distributed among the more populous counties.

In reshuffling the House representation the board disregarded population gains in Pulaski, Jefferson, Washington and some other counties.

Legal protests of the board's actions are filed directly in the supreme court. The changes become effective with the 1962 elections.

Reaction to Gold Flow Program

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's program to halt the flow of gold abroad is winning favorable reaction on Capitol Hill. But his proposals sparked a new controversy over foreign aid spending.

Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee read into Monday's presidential message new assurances that the foreign assistance program could be kept in operation despite the unfavorable balance in U. S. payments.

Fulbright told the Senate the message "repudiates without any equivocation any thought that our balance of payments situation will prevent our doing whatever is necessary in a foreign economic assistance program."

But Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., of the Finance Committee and A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., of the Banking Committee had distinctly different ideas.

Byrd said Kennedy's 18-point program moves "in the right direction."

"But I think a much more positive and constructive effort must be made to reduce our foreign economic aid," Byrd said.

He said Germany, Japan, England, France and other industrialized nations now are enjoying prosperity as the result of aid the United States gave them in the past.

"If foreign assistance is still necessary, the time is overdue when these nations, in their prosperity, should assume their share of the responsibility," he said.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower recommended a $4-billion foreign aid program. Democratic leaders have said Kennedy would recast this to call on other nations to bear more of the burden of helping newly independent countries.

Many of Kennedy's recommendations can be carried out without congressional action. Others, such as his proposal to cut generally from $500 to $100 the amount of foreign goods U. S. tourists can bring back to this country without paying duty, will require some time for enactment.

Republicans generally took the line that Kennedy was not proposing anything particularly new. Sen. Prescott Bush, R Conn., said that with few exceptions Kennedy was proposing to "continue and expand the necessary corrective actions initiated by President Eisenhower."

AEA Head Okays Questioned Film

HOPE SPRINGS (AP)—The controversial film "Operation Abolition" has been approved by Dr. Hugh L. Mills, president of the debate over the next 27 years. It carried the condition that the United States wipe out the remaining $200 million in West Germany's postwar debt in settlement of German Assets in America seized during World War I.

For festive winter evenings, the new smoother hairdos with cheek curls take to pretty hair ornaments. These are done with diamonds but they can be duplicated with costume jewelry. Moire rosette is pleated (left) and centered with a diamond pin. Pleating is repeated for this hair ornament (center) and finished off with flat bow. Long, flat grosgrain bow (right) is background for a narrow diamond pin. Bow is easy to make and your own jewelry collection may produce similar pin. Velvet or satin would be equally pretty as background for jewels.

Should This Mother Reveal Her Secret?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:
When and how does a mother tell her eldest daughter that she, the mother, had to get married? I have two girls. The eldest is the sensitive type and easily hurt. I fear what she'll do or think when told. Yet I don't want to put it off any longer. She already knows most of the facts of life and will soon be asking me, which will make it harder to explain.

My marriage has been very successful. My husband and I love each other very much and our children know it. —A Desperate Mother

Dear Desperate Mother: Why tear down what you have built up? Let the dead past bury the dead. Unless the truth has already been broadcast by the neighbors, say nothing. To reveal your secret now will only make an issue which would better be forgotten and cause trouble for everybody concerned. The fact that you and your husband love each other is all that matters.

Dear Helen:
My mother and father are divorced. I lived with my father and half sister. She tormented me so that, in self defense I became loud and boisterous, saying what I pleased, regardless of how it hurt others.

Now that I live with my mother and stepfather this lack of sensitivity is a real problem. I shock and hurt my stepfather and his friends. As a result he refuses to talk to me for days. I love my stepfather and feel if I cannot curb my tongue I must leave home, rather than make him and my mother unhappy. I am 16 and find at this age many problems, all of which seem solvable except this. Help! —S.

Dear S.: Ask your English teacher to help you increase your vocabulary and perfect your diction. Copy out on a slip of paper that old maxim, "Where there's a will there's a way," and paste on your mirror. Curb your reckless talk by repeating these words to yourself before speaking, no matter what you are about to say.

Dear Helen:
You once told a wife with a

Arkansas education Association. Mills, who viewed the film Monday with a group of Hot Springs administrators, emphasized that he spoke as an individual and not as head of the AEA.

The film, sponsored in Arkansas by the American Legion, has been criticized by AEA Executive Secretary Forrest Rozzell of Little Rock as being a misrepresentation. Rozzell has not said his views reflected those of the AEA.

Mills said he thought the film "very clearly illustrates the method used by Communists to create turmoil and bring discredit on some reputable body."

British Find Spy Radio Station

By HAL COOPER

LONDON (AP)—The British government charged in court today that a small house in a quiet London suburb housed a high-powered radio station transmitting British naval secrets to Moscow.

Atty. Gen. Sir Reginald Manningham-Buller, opening the prosecution of five persons charged with stealing top submarine secrets from a naval research station, said government agents made tests in the house and heard signals coming from the Moscow headquarters of a spy ring.

The five defendants who appeared today for a preliminary hearing, are Gordon A. Lonsdale, 37, a company director; Peter J. Kroger, 50, a bookseller; Kroger's wife, Helen, 47; Harry P. Houghton, 55 and Ethel E. Gee, 47.

Houghton and Miss Gee were employees of the top secret naval research station at Portland, Manningham-Buller said. Miss Gee, Houghton and Lonsdale were arrested after she handed Lonsdale a parcel containing naval secrets.

The attorney general said subsequently detectives found a radio transmitter buried in rubble under the Krogers' home. He said agents made monitoring tests at the house and heard signals apparently coming from Moscow in accordance with signal plans found in the house and at Lonsdale's home.

Manningham-Buller said that the Krogers provided the spy ring with its communications center "and possibly acted as its bankers."

Manningham-Buller said detectives had been keeping an eye on Houghton and Miss Gee for several months before they arrested after serving nearly half of a 10-year sentence.

Cairo newspapers said Zarb's release came as a direct result of the debate in Montreal last week in which British historian Arnold Toynbee strongly defended the Palestine Arab case against Israel. Zarb's cause also was probably helped by the agreement between Britain and U.A.R. to exchange ambassadors as the final step in resuming diplomatic relations broken off because of the Suez invasion.

Woman Found Dead

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—Miss Altha A. Kinnison was found dead in her bed here Monday and Coroner Richard Birtcher ruled she died of asphyxiation.

Birtcher said a fire in a heater in her closed bedroom apparently went out during the night.

The death rate in the United States for 1960 is estimated to be 9.4 per 1,000 population the thirteenth year in a row that it has been below 10 per 1,000.

them and Lonsdale on Jan. 7.

He said a parcel Miss Gee handed to Lonsdale that day contained 310 photographs, including photographic copies of 202 pages from the secret book "Particulars of Warships."

When Mrs. Kroger was arrested later at her home, the attorney general said, an eight-page letter in the Russian language was found in her purse.

Wants Money Due on an 1873 Debt

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Cleveland, Ohio, bank wants the $7 it says is due on an 1873 certificate of indebtedness from Little Rock.

The face value of the certificate is $1, but it calls for eight per cent per year interest. The tattered note, about the size of a modern dollar bill, was sent to the city by the Central National Bank of Cleveland.

There was no explanation of where the bank got the note or why it hadn't been redeemed previously.

City Finance Director E. Jack Murphy said he doesn't expect any trouble in clearing up the old debt.

WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO BABY JANE By Henry Farrell

By HENRY FARRELL

THE STORY: Edwin Flagg, who has never done a day's work in his life although his mother sacrificed to give him a musical education, plans to answer an ad for an accompanist. He does not know that the ad was placed by a mentally deranged old woman, the former child star Baby Jane Hudson.

Chapter XV

Mr. Edwin Flagg, Jane Hudson liked the name. It sounded stilted and patriotic. She glanced about, checking the room in preparation for the interview. She heard the approaching footsteps on the terrace and looked at the clock. Mr. Flagg believed in promptness.

Her first reaction as she opened the door to him was one, purely, of shock. Surely this was not Mr. Edwin Flagg. There was no possible way to reconcile the sight of this pale, portly young man in his cheap, ill-fitting jacket and his baggy trousers with the vision she had held in her mind. Evidently there was some mistake: Mr. Flagg had undoubtedly been detained and...

"I—hello," the young man said nervously, "I'm Edwin Flagg." Producing a handkerchief from his pocket, he dabbed self-consciously at his glistening forehead. He had not driven up the hill, then; he had walked. "I had an appointment with Miss Hudson. For 1:30."

Then, aware of the lengthening silence between them, she smiled. "Yes," she nodded, "I'm Miss Hudson." She stepped back, motioning reluctantly inside. "Come on in."

She showed him to a chair, the one to the right of the fireplace, then seated herself on the divan. Arranging her skirts carefully, she looked up with anxious anticipation only to be greeted with a similar look from Mr. Flagg. He wasn't at all the sort of person he was supposed to be, not the least bit what she had pictured. Suddenly she felt a positive loathing for this gross, pale-eyed young man, as if she had caught him out in a deliberate lie, and she only wanted him to go away again.

"You saw my ad in the paper?" The young man smiled mechanically. "Yes. I just happened to be glancing through—that part of the paper, you know—and since I happen to play both the piano and the violin..." He finished the sentence with a meaningless gesture of unease.

Jane nodded. "Yes. The ad said that—didn't it?—piano and violin required."

"Yes. Yes, it did. It seemed almost coincidental—in a way, it did—and so of course..." He concluded again with the same stiff gesture.

The silence between them resumed. Jane shifted slightly and then, in a paroxysm of nervousness, made a brief giggling sound. The young man looked up, his pale eyes startled. She moved her gaze yearningly in the direction of the kitchen.

"Tea?" she said with sudden inspiration. "Why don't I go fix us some tea? And then we can have tea and—talk. Do you like tea—Mr. Flagg?"

"Oh, yes!" Edwin Flagg started eagerly forward.

With a frown of perplexity Edwin watched her as she made her escape into the hallway. He wondered if he could possibly manage to get up and leave without her hearing.

In the end, it was the room, the house itself, which restrained Edwin from leaving. The house was old, that was true, and it had

What two advantages did the South have over the Union when the War Between the States (or Civil War) began? "They had more ammunition and they were the first to be fired."

No, that isn't the correct answer. It's one which turned up on a mid-term test paper at Helena junior high school. And it's just one of several which led Jack M. Young of the Helena World to decide why ex-teachers "for peace of mind seek other work."

Porkers Are No Match for Tech's Raiders

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas missed its chance to knock Texas Tech out of the Southwest Conference basketball playoffs last Tuesday night when the Razorbacks blew a 14-point lead in the last 12 minutes and the Raiders beat them 72-66.

The Porkers could have tied Tech for first place. Instead, they fell into a third place tie with SMU Tuesday night 70-63.

Tech is 6-1, A&M 5-2 and Arkansas, SMU and Texas 4-3.

The Red Raiders' devastating zone defense was the big difference in the game. The Hogs held a 14-point margin when Tech went to the zone. Arkansas scored only two field goals in the middle 10 minutes of the second half while the raiders surged and won going away.

Tech's 6-9 center Harold Huggins scored 25 points and grabbed 12 rebounds as Tech out-rebounded the Hogs, 56 to 55. Jerry Carlton led Arkansas with 18 points. Clyde Rhoden scored 17 and Pat Foster hit 14.

The Razorbacks' cold streak in the second half brought their shooting percentage for the night down to 31.3 per cent — far below their average.

It was the first defeat for the Razorbacks on their home court this season. The brightest spot for the Hogs was the play of sophomore Larry Wolford, who scored 12 points and grabbed 12 rebounds.

Tech hit 44.3 per cent of its field goal attempts.

The Tech victory evened the series between the teams at 5-5. It was the first time either had won at the opponent's court.

UA Freshmen Win Cage Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The University of Arkansas freshmen Shoots, paced by a 26-point performance by Andy Warford, trounced Fort Smith Junior College 70-62 in a basketball game Tuesday night.

It was preliminary to the Arkansas-Texas Tech Southwest Conference game.

Fort Smith held a 25-24 halftime lead but the Shoots overcame that lead and another brief Lion advantage. Paul Whisenand scored 21 points for Fort Smith.

PALM BEACH Fla. (AP) — Marge Burns, the medalist, and Mrs. Paul Dye of Indianapolis were paired for today's opening round of match play in the 43rd annual Palm Beach Women's Golf Championship.

Miss Burns got a 74 on the 6,000-yard par 72 Breakers course in a windy, rainy medal round. Mrs. Dye registered an 83. Mrs. Filton was not required to qualify and did not play. Miss McCutcheon carded 82.

Floyd Sees First Fight With Johan

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

SPRING VALLEY, N.Y. (AP) — Floyd Patterson must prefer horror movies to happy endings. The world heavyweight boxing champion watches the films of his first fight with Ingemar Johansson—not the second.

As Patterson was knocked down seven times in the first fight when he lost his title, and flattened into the second time around, it seemed like a strange choice.

"The first fight is when I made the mistakes," explained Patterson to newsmen visiting his training quarters at a country club. Did Patterson expect to abandon his peek-a-boo style?

"I don't think so," he said. "Did you think I did in the work-out? I was trying different things. But in an actual fight, I would have my hands back up there."

(Patterson's peek-a-boo style, in which he holds both hands high to block off head punches, has been criticized by many.)

Patterson, who plans to leave for a Florida camp next Tuesday, said he weighed 196 "about a week ago" when he last stepped on the scales. That is six more than he weighed for his second fight with Johansson last June.

"I am not trying for any particular weight," he said. "Whatever comes is all right with me. I like to work with heavy sweat pants. Before other fights they were afraid I would take off too much weight so I boxed in trunks only. But this time I have weight to spare."

Patterson boxed four rounds Tuesday in training for his March 13 third fight with the Swede in Miami Beach. He didn't over-exert himself against his sparring partner, Wilson Hannibal and the champ's 18-year-old brother, Ray, who is competing in the Golden Gloves as a heavyweight.

H. Johnson Doesn't Feel Like a Champ

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Harold Johnson is the new National Boxing Association world light heavyweight champion, but he still isn't quite happy.

"I don't feel like I'm the champ yet," the usually taciturn Philadelphia said in his dressing room Tuesday night after stopping young Jesse Bowdoy of St. Louis in the ninth round to win the blessings of the NBA.

"When I beat the old man (Archie Moore) I'll get that feeling," Moore knocked out Johnson in the 14th round in Johnson's only other shot at the title. The NBA whisked the crown from Moore's furrowed brow when he took an indifferent attitude toward defending it.

The sharp-featured, muscled Johnson has been seeking a return bout since that 1954 kayo, with frustration piling on frustration. Tuesday night he put his frustration to work. Usually a cautious fighter, he suddenly turned tiger.

He put Bowdoy on the canvas three times in a classic variety of poses, and after the third knockdown referee Cy Gottfried decided the wobbly, woozy, rubber-legged youth was in no condition to continue.

The end came in 45 seconds of the ninth round. The record crowd of 4,017 which paid a non-record $20,829.50 started whooping.

Johnson was a whirling pinwheel of action as the ninth opened. He threw punches from everywhere, with a solid left to the midsection for the final time, and would have been a sitting duck when he arose had not the referee intervened.

Grizzlies Use Defense to Beat Wildcats

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Fort Smith Grizzlies practiced their defense against North Little Rock Tuesday night and incidentally won a Big Nine Conference basketball game, 58-18.

Grizzly Coach Gayle Kaundert, one of the state's foremost defensive proponents, put his team in a tight zone against the Wildcats. It was so effective that North Little Rock scored only four points in the first half.

Fort Smith was coasting toward its two-game series with Blytheville on the last two days of the season. That set, in Blytheville, probably will determine the Big Nine title. Both teams have lost only once, but Blytheville is ahead in victories, 11 to 9.

The Grizzlies were off Tuesday night. They met Little Rock Hall Friday night.

Little Rock Central and Hall won their Big Nine games by identical scores Tuesday night. Central beat El Dorado 51-49 in El Dorado and Hall trimmed Hot Springs 51-49 in Hot Springs.

In the game at Fort Smith, David Dick scored 10 points and Pitt McGee hit seven for the Grizzlies. Dudley Blair scored eight of North Little Rock's 18. Fort Smith led 17-4 at halftime.

Hall went ahead of Hot Springs 30-26 at halftime and never trailed after that. Tim Hogan hit 19 points for Hall and Don Castleberry scored 14 for Hot Springs.

Central stayed mathematically in the title race with the triumph over El Dorado. Bill Knight scored 13 for the Tigers and Gary Elia and Charlie Martin each scored 19 for El Dorado.

Central held third place with a 7-3 chart. Hall held fourth with 6-5.

About 12 per cent of all male college students in the United States take military training as part of their curricula.

DOES THIS MEAN A HARD WINTER?—The Statue of Liberty holds her lamp high over a bleak tundra—frozen New York harbor. Battered by storm after storm, numbed by unwonted cold, the East and much of the rest of the country has shuffled through one of the bitterest winters of recent history. The Weather Bureau blames it on something called "planetary waves" and notes that winters have been getting colder for the past 20 years. Oh well, the hounds of spring are on winter's traces.

Hawks Claim 11-Game Lead in Division

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The St. Louis Hawks, with an 11-game lead, are well on their way to the Western Division championship in the National Basketball Association. They already can claim they're champs of the Philadelphia Warriors and Will Chamberlain.

When the Hawks rallied in the last quarter, to pull out a 127-124 decision over Philadelphia Tuesday night, it was their fifth over the Warriors this season and the 11th straight time they've beaten Philadelphia in St. Louis.

They didn't stop Chamberlain's rush toward his second league scoring title. Will scored 37 points, barely under his season average, and grabbed 21 rebounds.

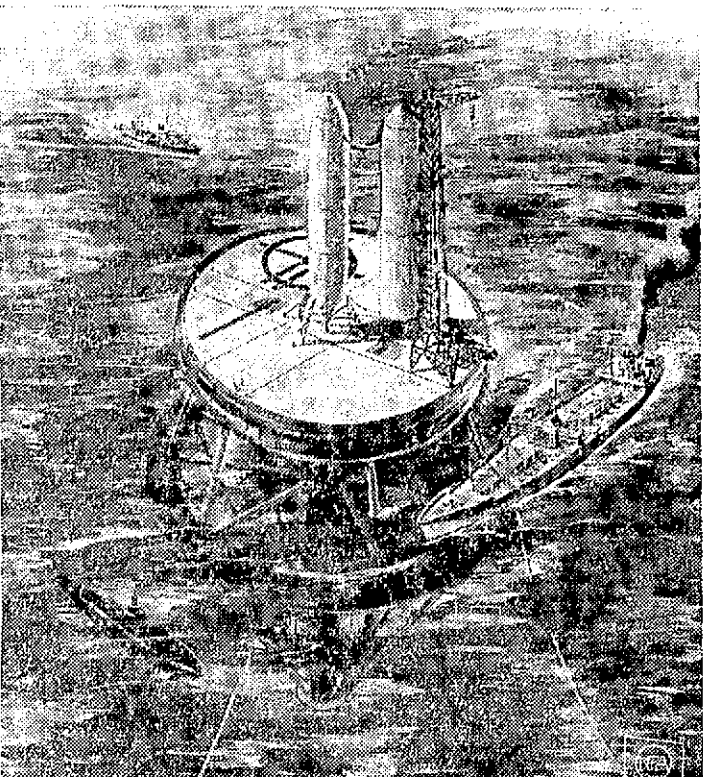

Somewhat more sensational was the performance of New York's Willie Naulls, who scored 49 points as the Knicks finally ended a 6-game losing streak with a 131-124 victory over the Detroit Pistons.

The New York victory came after the pacesetter Boston Celtics had edged the Los Angeles Lakers, who had to play without Elgin Baylor, 46-45 in the opener of a Madison Square Garden double-header.

Semi-finalists in the girls singles are Jan Reinhardt and Mary Gail McKee. In the boys singles the semi-finalists are Earl Ray Murphy and Charles Tripp. The championships in these divisions will be decided in the playoffs Thursday with loving cups going to the winners.

In the boys doubles 32 are participating and the finals will be played on the Hope High stage Friday. The singles are played with 11 points the highest possible score, and the doubles are played with 21 points high.

Student Council co-chairmen of the ping pong tournament are Lolly Prather and Jimmy Lloyd.

BUOYANT BASE—As a solution to the safe launching of huge chemical or nuclear-powered rockets of the future, a floating sea base has been proposed. Designed by Aerojet-General Corp., it is called "PROP" (Planetary Rocket Ocean Platform). Drawing shows a 300-foot nuclear rocket ready for launching. The platform is well above the waves and is supported by an underwater buoyant chamber. A submarine is used to evacuate personnel through an air lock after a nuclear firing. PROP is designed to have good stability, even in a hurricane.

'Ping-Pong' Tourney at Hope High

A sports tournament of a different sort is being held at Hope High School the week of Feb. 6-10.

Ping pong is the "order of the day" in the old gym before school and during the noon hour.

A chart on the wall enables the spectators to keep up with the races for the girls singles, the boys singles and the boys doubles. The games are played at eight tables with a member of the Student Council supervising the procedure at each table. These include Penny Franks, Jane Griggs, Jan Ellis Ann Sutton, Roy Allison, Ronnie Formby, William Tyler and Mac McLarty.

Participating and the finals will be played on the Hope High stage Friday. The singles are played with 11 points the highest possible score, and the doubles are played with 21 points high.

Weaver's Nomination Questioned

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., today held up the start of the Senate Banking Committee's hearing on Robert C. Weaver's nomination to be housing administrator. He said he wanted to be satisfied as to the New York Negro's loyalty.

Robertson said he has repeatedly tried to get a letter from President Kennedy evaluating an FBI report on Weaver, but no such communication has been received.

The Virginian said the White House did send him the FBI files on Weaver last Saturday but that did not satisfy him. He continued to insist on a letter from Kennedy. The chairman startled a packed hearing room with his announcement. Immediately after he had made it, he ordered the room cleared and call his 15-member group into executive session.

Robertson said he is unwilling to proceed with the examination of Weaver until a Kennedy letter is received.

A committee aide told newsmen a letter from the White House was on its way.

Weaver, named by Kennedy for the highest post ever held by a Negro in the executive branch of the government, was in the witness chair but did not get a chance to say anything before Robertson called the closed meeting.

Robertson said he had received "a number of complaints touching on the question of his Weaver's loyalty."

Weaver, 53, now is vice chairman of the New York City Housing and Redevelopment Board.

Duke Latest Victim of NCS Cagers

Everett Case, the silver-haired fox from Indiana who made big-time basketball a byword along Tobacco Road, isn't winning championships with the monotony of his first decade at North Carolina State.

But his Raleigh Wolfpack still has that knack for an upset snafu against a touted team.

Third-ranked Duke became the latest victim of Case and the Wolfpack Tuesday night, falling to its first Atlantic Coast Conference defeat and only its second in 18 games—61-59 on sub Terry Litchfield's long jumper with two seconds left.

While State was showing it should still be reckoned with in the ACC tournament that determines the league's NCAA representative, Texas Tech, Princeton, Rhode Island, and Kentucky improved their conference ledgers and St. Joseph's (Pa.) moved closer to a tournament berth.

Texas Tech, with Harold Huggins scoring 25 points, went into a pressing zone, made up a 14-point deficit and beat Arkansas 72-66 for its sixth Southwest Conference victory in seven starts.

Texas A&M took over second place at 5-2, beating Rice 79-59, while Southern Methodist spilled defending champion Texas 70-63.

Princeton got 22 points from Al Kaemmerlen and 21 from Pete Campbell for its fifth straight Ivy League triumph, 77-55 over Penn, and Rhode Island moved to within a half-game of Yankee Conference leader Maine by scoring 12 straight game-ending points for a 71-65 victory over Massachusetts.

Kentucky, moving up steadily in the Southeastern Conference, made its league record 4-4 with its 10th victory in 17 tries, 74-67 over Georgia as Roger Newman scored 24, Ned Jennings 21 and Allen Feldhaus stopped Bulldog ace Phil Seimprun in the second half. Simpson wound up with 9 points after getting 22 in the first half.

St. Joseph's (Pa.) gave scoring ace Jack Egan the night off but still crushed Elizabethtown 98-65 for a 15-4 record. The Hawks are heading for another bid to the National Invitation Tournament, which Tuesday mailed Providence (15-2) and DePaul (12-4), unless they should win the Middle Atlantic Conference. In that case, St. Joseph's would compete in the NCAA scuffling.

Orphaned as a young boy, Louis Armstrong was sent to an orphan's home. It was there that he learned to play the cornet.
